Presentation

Title: Registration Relief in Washington State

Overview: Attorneys Brad Meryhew and Amy Muth will talk about the process of being relieved from the requirement to register in Washington State. They will discuss the different requirements for adults compared to juveniles. Furthermore, they will also talk about people who were not convicted in Washington, but live here and want relief from the requirement to register in this state.

Alex Mayo of Washington Voices will talk about efforts that are happening to help people file their petitions pro se.
