Stephen Millard (s.millard08@hotmail.com)

- Stephen is working on a website to provide centralized support for sexual offenders. It will include information on the law, a social and legal advocacy component, etc. The overall purpose is to “rehumanize” sexual offenders as they are often marginalized. Many attendees expressed interest in this effort and support for Stephen.
- Stephen compiled a chart of registration information by state and this is posted as a separate attachment.
- He stated he is comfortable with people emailing him with questions.
