Presentation

Engaging Men to End Commercial Sexual Exploitation

Eli will present about the Stopping Sexual Exploitation Program, which is a 10-week restorative justice intervention primarily for men who buy sex. During his presentation, Eli will go over concepts the program covers and The Lantern Project's approach to accountability.

Eli Zucker comes to Seattle by way of Michigan, where he has led immersive efforts throughout his career to uplift sustainable community dialogue across difference. Today, Eli is the Director of Men's Accountability with The Lantern Project and Associate Faculty at the University of Washington School of Social Work. Eli holds a Master's in Social Work from the University of Michigan.
