Presentation

Topic: Forensic Report Writing

This discussion-based session will examine forensic report writing in general and with respect to a book of the same name co-authored by the presenter. It is presented from the perspective of someone who has written and reviewed reports written in multiple settings. While there are no universally agreed-upon rules for writing such reports, this presentation aims to help formulate questions that all practitioners can ask.

Presenter: David Prescott, LCSW, LICSW

Independent Evaluator and Consultant

Director of Acquisitions and Training
